

CONSENT TO SUE

I hereby consent to be a plaintiff in the Fair Labor Standards Act case, caption Alton Langley v. United States, case number 10-512. I consent to the bringing of any claims I may have under the Fair Labor Standards Act against the defendant. I authorize Brian S. King to represent me in this pending litigation. I understand that I am not required to be represented by Mr. King, and may decide to retain the services of another attorney to represent me in this matter. I understand that if I decide not to be represented by Mr. King, my attorney must file the "opt-in" forms with the United States Court of Federal Claims no later than January 6, 2012.

I understand that by returning this form to plaintiff's counsel, I am agreeing to be bound by Mr. Langley's decision concerning this litigation, the method and manner of conducting this litigation, the fee agreement between Mr. Langley and Mr. King, and all other matters relating to this lawsuit. I am aware that I can request a copy of the contingency fee agreement and any agreement regarding litigation costs from plaintiff's lawyer at the contact information given below.

By signing and returning this consent to sue, I certify that I attended New Agent training at the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") Academy in Quantico, Virginia during the time period from August 7, 2007 through March 12, 2011.
